

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Sara Blanch, born in Darmós (Tarragona), is a light lyric soprano. He finished his singing studies in a brilliant way at the Liceu Conservatory of Barcelona, obtaining the Superior Degree in the Specialty of Interpretation - Canto. He debuted in Pesaro (Italy) in 2013 and has since sung in several renowned theaters such as the Palau de la Música and G.T. The Liceu de Barcelona, the T. de la Zarzuela and the Real T. of Madrid, the Kurtheater of Wildbad (Germany), the Maestranza of Seville or the Peralada Festival, among others. In addition to having been awarded prizes in other prestigious competitions, such as the Montserrat Caballé Singing Contest, in 2016, her artistic quality was definitively recognized, winning 8 of the prizes awarded by the Francesc Viñas International Singing Contest. His repertoire includes composers such as Mozart, Rossini, Bellini and Donizetti.